

I opted for satellite radio because local broadcast radion does not serve me. With Satellite I can listen to what I want when I want. I look forward to satellite weather and traffic for my area which is available when I need it not when (or if) the local stations chooses to broadcast it.

respectfully,

William F Hardiman